

Kimi News, Week 3, Term 1, 2016

We have an exciting week ahead with the beginning of EOTC (Education Outside the Classroom). Coming up next week

Monday 22 February -

Evans Bay Site is going to Otari Wilton Bush for a picnic. We will leave at 10.30am and return to school by 2pm. The picnic will be at the Troup Picnic Area. The easiest entrance is from the carpark at Churchill Drive. Feel free to join us. (Rain date - Monday 29 Feb)

Tuesday 23 February -

Evans Bay Site is having an EOTC day based from school including kite making, water exploration, camp fire cooking and a nature trail scavenger hunt.

Naenae students will be going to Staglands and ten-pin bowling. Ask your child's teacher if you would like to know more about the event your child will attend. Parent help welcome!

Easter Break

Please note that this term includes an Easter Holiday break. The holiday days are:

Friday 25 March, Monday 28 March and Tuesday 29 March.

Rosie, Shuai'b and Riley are attending St Patrick's Primary School weekly. We are so thankful to St Pats for being so welcoming and inclusive! What a fantastic opportunity for our students to learn from some great role models.
