Kimi News, Week 9, Term 3, 2015

In planning Kimi Cafe at Naenae, we have become increasingly ambitious. We want to create meals that have student-input and are student-created as well as healthy and delicious. Recently we found out about a source of fresh and cheap fruits and vegies through the Naenae Vegie Co-op. <http://www.stdavidsnaenae.com/#!naenae-fruit-vege-co-op/cf3b>

At a very reasonable $10, we have been buying a share with which to make Kimi Cafe and run food science sessions. As it is a community organisation we decided to reach out and see if we could volunteer our time and effort to join their Tuesday packing session. Siobhan and Jacinta from our senior class went on the short walk to meet the other volunteers. Everyone was charmed and so friendly in meeting and greeting us. We will join them regularly on Tuesdays to be part of an excellent organisation from within our community.

Congratulations to Morgan for playing the drum and standing amazingly well during a music session.

Congratulations to Alexia spontaneously using her PECS symbols throughout the day.

Last week, with late notice, a whole lot of people got dressed up in their onesies to support Wellington Free Ambulance. It certainly made for a fun day. At Evans Bay the staff and students had a parade and a dance to celebrate the crazy dress-ups.
